Video surveillance for banking: adding value to your business

Fraud prevention in your ATM network

Put “eyes” on your ATMs and locate the images of any potentially fraudulent operation in a matter of seconds, through advanced search filters. Obtain all the information of interest related to the transaction for later forensic analysis.

From a simple interface, you will be able to track the operations carried out in your entity’s ATM network by a specific credit card, check all the sales made from a certain terminal of your business or find out which are the most common transactions in a certain ATM. This way you can implement more specific protection mechanisms depending on whether there is a lot of cash movement or not.
